Local Initiatives

Throughout the course of October PC's Steckla and Wallace have been carrying out various amounts proactive work up and down the coast including the development of drug misuse intelligence, speed sites and mobile patrols of potential Housebreaking targets.

Throughout the course of the last 18 months officers have carried out 120-140 speed sites, issued over 200 warnings issued, 40 FPN's issued and 10 drivers reported to the PF.

Events being held at Crail Raceway are being monitored and the event's organiser is working closely with Community Officers to ensure there is a balance between following the guidelines, allowing the economy to continue to be maintained and ensuring public safety.

Community Speedwatch

The Speedwatch initiative has been on hold due to Covid-19 however officers can confirm that all the volunteers that started the process have been vetted and are now able to work alongside Police Scotland for the next three years.

Given the current restrictions the final stage of training has not been carried out however with the change from BST to GMT in the coming weeks CSW will not be able to go ahead until Spring 2021.

We will continue to monitor the Governments guidelines and as soon as training can be carried out in a safe and effective manner this will be done so.
